STORY

Touching love story for everyone who knows the heartache of being in love.

Aiko Tsumari (= Tsuma) spent a period of time in hospital when she was young. She reads her cherished picture book, "Yellow Elephant", as if to bring relief to her lonesome days. Tsuma begins to hear the voices of the trees and animals as she talks to the picture book and travels through an imaginary world.

Ayumu Muko (= Muko) is a struggling novelist with a big tattoo of a bird on his back. He carries a scar from the past.

On a full moon night, the two meet and in no time get married. Although they both have a secret, they are peaceful and happy until a letter comes for Muko, and their relationship begins to sway. Muko is trapped by the past, while concerned Tsuma becomes unstable. One day, Muko leaves for Tokyo to face his past with a determination in his mind. Tsuma is left alone...
