STORY

A new horror series, "Tonari no Kai", has been created by Hirokatsu Kihara, the author of the blockbuster "Tale of Terror from Tokyo and All Over Japan".

We may already be in the other world by the time we realize it, or the inexplicable existence may be burrowing into our world. The film shows how the world is getting twisted thoroughly and surely. Spine-chilling psycho-neurotic images and unforgettable horror images are set upon the viewers repeatedly. Something is happening in the house right next to where you are.
